Community Service Award
Procedure

Community Service Award

The Community Service Award is presented by the Parks, Beaches & Recreation Commission (PB&R) in the spirit of showing their appreciation to those individuals who contribute to the community and improve the quality of life in Newport Beach.

Awarded to individuals, agencies, community organizations, foundations, businesses, or educational institutions for outstanding public service in the support of creating community through people, parks and programs. Recipients are chosen based upon their significant effort of time and/or monetary contributions to influence and improve the quality of the Newport Beach community through contributions towards programs in parks, recreation, beaches, senior and community services.

Procedure

Nominations will be accepted from Commissioners, staff and residents anytime when deemed appropriate throughout the year on the attached form. Anonymous nominations will not be accepted. A subcommittee consisting of three PB&R Commissioners will review the nominations. Nominations that receive a majority of the subcommittee vote will be presented to the full commission for final vote at a future PB&R meeting. Presentation to the award winner will be made at the earliest available Commission meeting that the award winner is able to attend.

Selection Criterion (at least 3 criteria must be met)

1. Be a resident of the City of Newport Beach or actively teaching or volunteering in the community.
2. Active in Newport Beach programs including recreation, parks, beaches, open space, senior or community programs for at least one year.
3. Contributed to the development or improvement of new equipment, apparatus, parks, maintenance, facilities or programs in Newport Beach.
4. Proven record of outstanding volunteer service to the Newport Beach community.

Program involvement:

Principal, Newport Harbor High School

Explain why you are nominating this person / group / organization: (choose one)

I am nominating Dr Sean Boulton for his incredible contribution and leadership to the Newport Harbor High School community and the City of Newport Beach and beyond. Dr. Boulton is entering his 11th year as the Principal of the Newport Harbor Sailors. He is an inspiration for all students and parents at NHHS and throughout NMUSD.

His leadership is unwavering, and he is one of the most approachable administrators I have encountered. He genuinely cares for all young people and their pathways into the world. He has brought so much to NHHS and the students and staff. His door is always open. "Relationships are paramount!" Sean is always finding ways to better the school community while maintaining an inclusive feel for all students and families. His staff has a tremendous amount of respect for him, and they work together to ensure that all students receive the best education. He thinks outside the box and has the respect and support of the NMUSD Superintendent, Dr. Wes Smith. From the top down, at the district level, administrators and teachers throughout the district come to him for advice and guidance. He is a proud father of twins who recently graduated from NHHS.

Dr. Boulton has continued to lead NHHS and the community through many challenges. He has faced adversity throughout his tenure with grace and integrity. Dr. Boulton consistently rallies around the Harbor community; his genuine kindness and positivity towards all students, regardless of their diverse backgrounds, are admirable. Dr. Sean Boulton has a lengthy list of accomplishments over the years that could fill a book. With this nomination for his outstanding community service, it's his actions as a role model, principal, father, and friend that make him an incredible and well-deserving recipient of the PB&R Community Service Award!

Dr. Boulton has been instrumental in numerous projects and has been recognized by his peers and the district at large for creating programs that enrich students' lives.

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL), he raised awareness and created the ADL, recruited students from all backgrounds to participate and learn to recognize bias and the harm it inflicts, built understanding of the value and benefits of diversity, and organized all-school programming, including impactful, annual field trips to the Simon Wiesenthal Museum of Tolerance in Los Angeles.

Facilities: Dr. Boulton has played a leading role in ensuring that Newport Harbor, as well as other schools throughout the district, have quality facilities for all students. Working with district officials to completely renovate Davidson Field to a state-of-the-art performing arts theater that benefits the arts for the students' programs at NHHS, but also allows the community to have access to other events and speakers. He was very involved and focused with NHHS's newest facility, the Bill Barnett Swimming and Aquatics Center. In addition, the award-winning CTE Pathway in Culinary is getting a kitchen upgrade thanks to Dr. Boulton's perseverance, benefiting students who have gone on to renowned Culinary Schools throughout the United States and the world. These facilities have led NHHS to win several CIF Titles in both boys' and girls' sports. The CTE Culinary program has also won several National Titles.

Latinos Unidos: Thanks to Dr. Boulton's steadfast leadership, he helped to form a wonderful group on the NHHS campus called Latinos Unidos, promoting and including Latinos and all students. As many know, NHHS is the largest high school in Newport-Mesa. We pull in many students from both Newport and Costa Mesa, so this group has become very important to the community.

Education: During Dr. Boulton's tenure at Newport Harbor High School, the school has been nationally recognized as a National Blue Ribbon school, ranked as one of the best high schools in US News and World Report, and the national AP School Honor Roll. At the State Level and under Dr. Boulton's leadership, NHHS has been awarded and recognized as a California Distinguished School, and the California Positive Behavioral Intervention & Supports Coalition, and recognized as a California Honor Roll School.
