Since joining the City of Hermosa Beach Planning Department in 2003, I have worked and been extremely interested in real estate development / urban planning. My time at the Orange County Business Council helped me understand the various interests associated with development, and spending 7-years working in the Newport Beach HQ of The Concord Group real estate consultancy exposed me to smart urban planning, along with the economics - both private and public - driving new projects. I am now COO at a property management firm with over 10K units under management; I'd like to utilize my experience and deep real estate development/operations understanding to help plan for Newport Beach's growth.

I bring both passion and expertise to this role. I wish to serve as I benefit from the Art in the Park, and always attend and support the artists at the Newport Beach Art Show. I wish to assist in generating more art awareness, education and viewing opportunities for our community.

I am now in my encore career, which is serving as an art consultant to both commercial real estate and residential owners. I also took a minor in Art History, and am keeping abreast of the contemporary art world. I have acquired art across the country and around the world, having visited galleries and artists' studios in more than 25 countries. I would be honored to serve in this role, to learn from the amazing chairwoman and the other committee members, and to work hard. I respect our community and our City. I also have studied architectural history and styles, which may be of assistance in the signage review role of this committee.

Summarize why you wish to serve the City of Newport Beach on a board, commission or committee. Include any special qualifications you have which are particularly appropriate to the position for which you are applying.

My interest to join the City Arts Commission first began in 2021 when I learned about the commission's scope and responsibilities during a particularly compelling session of the Distinguished Citizen Program. At the time, no spots were available and so I waited for about a year and a half until last week when an email arrived with welcomed news: There's an opening for the City Arts Commission this year. For me, this commission would be an excellent fit to use my skill set and experience for the betterment of our city. The arts have always played a prominent role in my life. Throughout my childhood growing up in New York, I was a singer/songwriter, studying jazz performance and opera at the Manhattan School of Music, performing at Carnegie Hall and appearing with my band at various clubs in NYC. In college, I studied American literature and art history, and participated in Columbia University's creative writing program. After college, I received an M.S. in journalism from Northwestern's Medill School. After graduation, I worked for about a year as an editor and reporter at the largest B2B magazine in the nation (headquartered in Chicago) where I was recruited to be the writer for a brand-new real estate company that was about to launch: Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices. I worked at Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices for more than five years, infusing an ever-growing penchant for creativity into our marketing and communications campaigns, eventually becoming the Global Director of PR, Communications & Digital Media for the brand. In 2018, I left that job to start my own creative agency based right here in Newport Beach. (Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices is now our client.) Today, my agency works with Fortune 500 companies, some of the nation's most powerful CEOs, the largest real estate companies in the nation and multi-million-dollar startups. We craft our clients' brand stories, create their marketing materials and strategies, write their keynote speeches and more. My writing has appeared on the cover of Real Estate magazine, and in Forbes, Inc. and Fast Company. In 2022, I was selected by Women's Leader Magazine as one of the "20 Most Inspiring Leaders of 2022." This year, I received the 2023 Newsmaker award by Real Estate Magazine. In addition to running my agency full time, I also wrote and published a Newport Beach magazine called 'West Oceanfront. Read an edition here: https://issuu.com/westoceanfront/docs/wof_2020_12december_issue I've also written and covered several Newport Beach events as an official member of the press, including: the Newport Beach Film Festival, Newport Beach Film Festival Fall Honors, Variety's 10 Actors to Watch (held in Newport Beach), the Newport Beach Food & Wine Festival, the Pacific Food & Wine Festival (held in Newport Beach), U.S. Open of Surfing and more. I'm currently writing my first novel. But enough about me! I'd be honored if you consider my application for the City Arts Commission, and look forward to contributing to the city in a meaningful - and creative - way.

Summarize why you wish to serve the City of Newport Beach on a board, commission or committee. Include any special qualifications you have which are particularly appropriate to the position for which you are applying.

I would like to serve the City of Newport Beach on the City Arts Commission because I believe that the Arts are an intrinsic part of any community. I believe the Arts can be integrated into our daily lives and exist in homes, schools, community and cultural centers, and many other places which, in turn, strengthen our community's cultural lives. As a Trustee of the Laguna Art Museum, I support the museum's education and outreach programs in the larger Orange County community. As an Educator, I have facilitated Arts Education programs in schools and after-school programs as well as with adults in museums. From this broad base of experience I have seen how Art touches lives and opens the doors to creativity and communication.

FW: Annual Boards, Commissions and Committees Vacancies

From: Laurel Tippet [REDACTED]Sent: April 28, 2025 10:56 PMTo: Mulvey, Jennifer <JMulvey@newportbeachca.gov>Subject: Re: Annual Boards, Commissions and Committees Vacancies

Also, I would like my application to reflect that I completed the Newport Beach Foundation's DCP program in 2020. Since that time I have been applying to committees and have not had the opportunity to serve. I think the Library Committee would be a great fit for me. I was born in Newport Beach and grew up going to the library and now I take my children. I attend the Witte speaker series and I am very involved and interested in the different public programs our libraries offer. Additionally, I work for the County of Orange and handle the real estate contracts for County libraries and I think my legal and public sector perspective would be of great benefit to the committee.

Thanks for your consideration.
