I have a PhD in avionics-related Electrical Engineering, have spent 42 years working in the aircraft industry at the Boeing Company, Northrop Grumman, and with Lockheed Martin. I have flown more than two million miles as a commercial passenger. I bring both an engineering and solution-focused program management perspective to the airport problem. While airports represent progress and economic vitality, they appreciably reduce the quality of life for those who live near them or under the their flight paths. All stakeholders, the FAA, pilots, passengers, airlines, and those homeowners under the flight paths need to be considered in finding a solution that is safe, economic, and satisfactory to all. I am a long-time Newport Beach resident who has the passion, time, energy, and endurance to help bring the aviation problems

I am a private pilot and I own a Cessana 177/RG, 4 seater/single engine, airplane based at John Wayne airport for the past 8 years. At a recent pilot's meeting, a John Wayne Airport architect presented 3 proposals for changing the parking locations for General Aviation aircraft at John Wayne airport: As a member of the Aviation Committee, I feel, my knowledge of General Aviation would provide a valuable insight into the needs of plane owners at John Wayne airport. Also, as a passenger of John Wayne commercial airlines and a Newport Beach homeowner close to the flight path of John Wayne aircraft, I could provide a balanced perspective on the pros and cons of John Wayne airport policy/construction for the Orange County community.
