My positive involvement in developing and presenting seawall information to assist the Council and Tidelands Committee in reaching a well-received decision re-affirmed the benefits of collaboration in city administration. Through that process I met countless residents who were impacted by the decision, and I had the privilege to know and work with members of the Council, City Engineers, Tidelands Committee members and many others. Since then, I have been encouraged to become more involved in City service, and I believe I could assist in a friendly and productive manner. My work as a law professor, trial lawyer, and president of an affiliated bar association brings me daily renewed enthusiasm about the benefits of working together. In my work as a lawyer, I have represented judges in matters involving our Board of Supervisors, as well as work in many delicate litigation and negotiation legal cases. Community service has been a calling in many bar and law school functions, as well as in my role as a Fellow and overseeing Regent of the American College of Trial Lawyers. I hope to bring an organized, intelligent and collaborative perspective to future service.
